BUSINESSES COMPETING WITH THE GROUP

Mr. Abdulaziz Bin Abdulrahman Bin Mohammed Al Omran, a Director of Jahez, is also a Director and partner of Impact46, which in turn invests in delivery applications competing with the Group's business such as the Chefz and Nana applications. The Chefz application delivers food options and gifts to customers while the Nana application delivers purchases from supermarkets, pharmacies, meat merchants, etc. to customers. The Company's General Assembly issued its approval for the Directors to participate in this competitive business on 06/12/1445H (corresponding to 12 June 2024).

About the Chefz application

The Chefz application works with the food, flower and perfume delivery business and serves several cities in the Kingdom. The application provides a delivery service through a network of delivery partners within scheduled dates or an express delivery according to the capacity of restaurants in cooperation with the partners of the Chefz application.

About Nana application

The Nana application provides the service of delivering food and products from several sources such as pharmacies, groceries, wholesale markets and various supermarkets. It is focused on collecting products from different sources and delivering them to the customer's home within specific periods of time and enabling the customer to pay through the app to purchase from different parties.

DIVIDEND DISTRIBUTION POLICY

The shares entitle their holders to the right to receive any dividends that the Company declares from the date of the prospectus and for subsequent financial years. The Company intends to distribute annual dividends to its shareholders in line with the Group's profits, financial position, restrictions on dividend distribution under financing and debt agreements, results of the Group's activities, current and future cash requirements, expansion plans, investment requirements, and other factors including the analysis of the Group's investment opportunities and reinvestment requirements, monetary and capital requirements, trade expectations and the impact of any such distributions on any legal and regulatory considerations. In addition, investors who wish to invest in Offer shares should be aware that the dividend distribution policy may change from time to time. While the Company intends to distribute dividends to its shareholders on an annual basis, the Company does not guarantee the distribution of such dividends or the amounts to be distributed in any given year. The Company's net profits will be distributed after deducting all general expenses and other costs as follows:

1. The Ordinary General Assembly, when determining the portion of shares in the net profits, may decide to form reserves, to the extent that it is in the interest of the Company or ensures the distribution of fixed dividends, to the extent possible, to the shareholders. The said Assembly may also deduct from the net profit's sums for the social purposes of the Company's employees. The General Assembly shall determine the percentage to be distributed to shareholders from the net profits after deducting reserves, if any.

2. Based on the Board's suggestion, the Ordinary General Assembly may set aside reserves of net profits shall be allocated to one or more specific purpose. 3. Subject to the provisions set forth in Article 21 of the Company's bylaws and Article 76 of the Companies Law, the Board of Directors' of net profits.

SHAREHOLDER RIGHTS

There are no arrangements or agreements under which any of the Company's shareholders has waived their rights to profits.

There is no interest in the class of voting shares belonging to persons (other than members of the Company's Board of Directors, senior Executives and their relatives) who informed the Company of these rights in the fiscal year 2024.

to build up other reserves that remuneration shall consist of a specified amount, attendance allowance for sessions, in-kind benefits or a certain percentage

It is worth noting that the Company did not distribute any dividends in the financial years 2020, 2021, 2022, 2023 and 2024. In addition, there are no arrangements or agreements under which one of the Company's shareholders has relinquished his rights to receive profits during 2024.

EMPLOYEE STOCK PROGRAM

The Company decided to set up an employee stock program with the aim of providing incentives for the Company's distinguished employees to attract and retain them in order to achieve the Company's goals. Notably, the employee stock program will include employees who are determined by the Board based on performance evaluations, where the Company's Extraordinary General Assembly on 28/10/1442H (corresponding to 9 June 2021) agreed to establish the employees stock program and authorize the Board of Directors to determine its provisions, including the allocation price for each share offered to the employee if it is in return. After completing the offering process, the selling shareholders sold 192,000 shares of the Company with a nominal value of 走10 to be used within the framework of the Company's employee stock program, in accordance with the resolution of the Extraordinary General Assembly of the Company on 28/10/1442H (corresponding to 9 June 2021).

On 15/05/1445H (corresponding to 29 November 2023) the General Assembly gave approval to purchase a maximum number of (293,770) of its own shares and keep them as treasury shares.

It is worth noting that the Company has split the nominal value of the share from # 10 per share to # 0.50 per share. As a result, the number of Company shares increased to 209,836,060 from 10,491,803 shares, while keeping the Company's capital unchanged.

RESPONSIBILITIES AND POWERS OF THE BOARD

Responsibilities

The Board of Directors is responsible for overseeing the Company's Executive Management and for supporting its strategic objectives, allowing the Company to carry out its business successfully and sustainably in the interest of its shareholders and stakeholders. The Board is also responsible for enhancing the Company's success in the long run and providing clear instructions to Executive Management, including developing a clear strategy and overseeing its implementation by Management. Additionally, the Board oversees the Company's governance structure, controls, internal control systems and risk management.

The Board represents all shareholders, manages the Company's affairs, carries out all works for the public interest of the Company and develops and strives to increase its value with due diligence and loyalty. The Board also protects the shareholders' interests and maximizes their gains in the long run. For this purpose, the Board shall be fully responsible for the Company's governance, including developing the Company's vision, strategy and objectives, and shall oversee Management in achieving these objectives.

Even though the Executive Management is responsible for the day-to-day affairs of the Company, the Board is tasked with ensuring and verifying that the Company's internal control systems are effective and that its activities are in line with the strategy, frameworks, policies and internal procedures adopted by the Board in the manner ascribed by the law, regulations or instructions issued by competent authorities. Without prejudice to the competencies of the General Assembly, the Board shall have extended powers to manage the Company and direct its business to achieve its objectives. In particular, the Board's duties and responsibilities include the powers provided under applicable laws, regulations, instructions and the Company's bylaws.

The Board represents all shareholders and shall exert due care and loyalty to manage the Company, protect its interests, develop it and maximize its value. Each Board Member shall comply with the principles of honesty, integrity and loyalty, and care for the interests of the Company and shareholders and prioritize them over their personal interests, in accordance with applicable laws, regulations and instructions.

The Board of Directors is also responsible for the Company's business, even when it delegates committees, authorities or individuals to exercise some of its powers. In all cases, the Board shall not issue a general or unfixed term mandate.

It is worth noting that, in compliance with the Companies Law, neither the Company's bylaws nor any of its internal regulations and policies grant any powers enabling a Director to vote on any contract or offer in which that Director has a direct or indirect material interest. This is pursuant to Article 27 of the Companies Law, which stipulates that a member of the Board of Directors may not have a direct or indirect interest in the transactions and contracts completed for the Company without the permission of the General Assembly.

Pursuant to Article 71, the Member must inform the Board of Directors of any personal interest they may have in the transactions or contracts completed for the Company. The Chairman of the Board of Directors must notify the General Assembly, when it convenes, of transactions and contracts in which any Member has a personal interest. Such notification shall be accompanied by a special report from the Auditor. This notification shall be recorded in the minutes of the Board's meeting. The relevant Member shall not participate in voting on the resolution to be adopted in this regard.

Based on the foregoing, the Directors declare that they will:

- Work in accordance with Articles 71 and 72 of the Companies Law.
- Not vote on contracts entered into with related parties at the General Assembly Meetings if they have a direct or indirect interest.
- Not compete with the Company's business without approval of the General Assembly in accordance with Article 27 of the Companies Law.

RESPONSIBILITIES AND POWERS OF THE BOARDCONTINUED

Powers of the Board

The Company is overseen by a Board of Directors consisting of highly experienced specialists. The Board shall have the full powers to manage Company business and supervise its affairs. The Board mandates the responsibility of the Company's dayto-day management to the Executive Management.

The Board Committees may request the assistance of external, professional and independent advisors who may demand support from the Company's departments to help them carry out their responsibilities in accordance with the work regulations stipulated for each Committee. External advisors, some of the Directors and senior Executive Management members may sometimes attend Committee meetings together with its members and the Secretary, subject to an invitation from the concerned Committee Chair.

The Board of Directors shall have the power to form any number of Committees that it deems necessary for effective governance, supervision and management of Company's operations, or to delegate some of its powers to a third party. However, the Board has retained its power over taking important decisions and specific key matters that require Board approval. These powers include the Company strategy-related decisions, annual financial reports, operational plans, key capital expenditures and transactions, financial results, dividend distributions, other capital returns as well as approval of the Company's risk appetite and other governance matters.

Jahez Group has implemented internal check-andbalance measures for assessing the performance of the Board of Directors and its Committees. These measures include, but are not limited to, a formal review process involving an evaluation by each Board Member on the performance and effectiveness of the Board as a body, and its members individually.

REMUNERATION POLICY

Without prejudice to the provisions of the Companies Law, the Capital Market Law and their implementing regulations, the remuneration policy shall:

- 1. Be consistent with the Company's strategy and objectives.
- 2. Provide remunerations with the aim of encouraging members of the Board of Directors and Executive Management to achieve the success of the Company and its long-term performance, such as linking the variable part of the remuneration to the long-term performance.
- 3. Determine remuneration based on the level of the position, duties and responsibilities, the educational qualifications, practical experience, skills and level of performance.
- 4. Be consistent with the magnitude, nature and level of risks faced by the Company.
- 5. Take into consideration the practices of other companies in respect of the determination of the remunerations and avoid the disadvantages of such comparisons in leading to unjustifiable increases in remunerations and compensations.
- 6. Attract talented professionals and retain and motivate them without exaggeration.
- 7. Prepare in coordination with the Nomination and Remuneration Committee for new appointments.
- 8. Take into consideration situations where remunerations should be suspended or reclaimed if it is determined that such remunerations where based on inaccurate information provided by a member of the Board of Directors or Executive Management, in order to prevent abuse of power to obtain unmerited remuneration.
- 9. Regulate the granting of Company shares to members of the Board of Directors and the Executive Management, whether newly issued or purchased by the Company.

Board of Directors' remuneration

- 1. The method of remunerating the members of the Board of Directors shall be determined by the Company's bylaws.
- 2. The General Assembly shall be responsible for determining the amount of remuneration for the members of the Board of Directors.
- 3. Without prejudice to other relevant laws and regulations issued by other supervisory authorities, and in addition to the relevant provisions of the Companies Law and its implementing regulations, the following are additional criteria:
- The remuneration must be fair and proportionate to the Board Member's activities carried out and responsibilities borne by the Board Members in addition to the objectives set out by the Board of Directors to be achieved during the financial year.
- The remuneration must be based on the recommendation of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee.
- The remuneration must be proportionate to the Company's activities and the skills required of its Management.
- Take into consideration the sector in which the Company operates, its size and the experience of its Board Members.
- The remuneration must be reasonably sufficient to attract, motivate and retain highly qualified and experienced members of the Board of Directors.
- 4. Members of the Board of Directors shall not vote on the agenda item relating to the remuneration of the Board of Directors at the General Assembly Meeting.
- A Board Member may receive a remuneration for any additional executive, technical, managerial or consultative – pursuant to professional license – duties or positions carried out by the Board Member and such remuneration should be in addition to the remuneration they may receive in their capacity as a member of the Board of Directors and the Committees formed by the Board, pursuant to the Companies Law and the Company's bylaws.

- 6. The remuneration of members of the Board of Directors may vary depending on the Board Members' experience, expertise, duties he/she undertakes, independence and number of Board meetings he/she attends in addition to other considerations.
- 7. If the General Assembly decides to terminate the membership of any Board Member who fails to attend three consecutive Board meetings or five non-consecutive Board meetings during his/her membership without a legitimate excuse accepted by the Board, then such Board Member shall not be entitled to any remuneration for the period starting from the last attended Board meeting, and he/she shall pay back any remuneration he/she received for that period.
- 8. If it is evident to the Audit Committee or the Authority that the remuneration paid to any member of the Board of Directors was based on false or misleading information presented to the General Assembly or included in the Board of Directors' Annual Report, the Board Member shall return such remuneration to the Company, and the Company may request such Board Member to return such remuneration.

Executive Management remuneration

The following criteria shall be taken into account when determining Executive Management remuneration:

Corporate Governance

- The remuneration shall be fair and proportionate to the activities and responsibilities of the Executive Management member, in addition to the specific objectives set by the Executive Management for the financial year.

INVESTOR RELATIONS

The Board of Directors emphasizes the importance of regular and open engagement and communication with shareholders and other stakeholders, at various points throughout the year, as well as during the General Assembly Meeting. In line with this, the Jahez Investor Relations (IR) Department serves as a center for constant communication with shareholders, investors and analysts. The Board of Directors receives regular updates regarding shareholders' opinions, suggestions and observations about the Company and its performance through the IR Department and the Board Secretary.

The CEO informs the members of the Board of Directors of the material opinions and suggestions of the shareholders and discusses these opinions and proposals with them during Board of Director meetings.

Jahez aims to engage with its investors throughout the year by providing several opportunities to interact with them through a variety of meetings, including quarterly and annual business meetings and conference calls, attendance at investor conferences, and issuing management statements on Jahez's activities and its results. The Executive Management also holds several conference calls with analysts and shareholders upon their request to understand the Jahez business model and strategy. Moreover, this allows them to raise inquiries related to Jahez's performance, and to understand the Executives' plans to address current changes in the environment and economic regulations.

IR activities 2024

In 2024, the Investor Relations function emphasized the importance of direct engagement with the financial community through conferences, fostering transparency and trust. These activities not only reinforced investor confidence but also provided crucial insights that shaped corporate strategies to align with market expectations. # RISK MANAGEMENT

Jahez has developed an Enterprise Risk Management Framework, which is adapted from relevant frameworks including ISO 31000 (Risk Management – guidelines) and COSO (Enterprise Risk Management – Integrated Framework), in a manner consistent with local practices and requirements issued by the local government agencies. It is integrated into a risk reporting structure to meet the requirements of compliance.

The diagram below illustrates the components of the risk appetite framework:

The risk appetite of the Company is determined by reflecting and balancing goals for growth, return and risk.

Risk management policy

The risk management policy at Jahez Group aims to enhance the protection of the Group's assets and achieve its strategic objectives by adopting a comprehensive and organized Risk Management Framework. The policy works to identify, assess and address potential risks effectively, contributing to the reduction of negative impacts and maximizing positive opportunities. It also seeks to integrate risk management into daily operations and promote a culture of risk awareness among all employees and stakeholders, ensuring decisions are based on sound foundations that support the sustainability of the Group's operations.

Risk management governance

The Board has authorized the responsibility for reviewing the effectiveness of internal control systems and the risk management methodology of the Company to the Audit Committee. The Board of Directors of Jahez also oversees the risk management process through the Audit Committee, which is responsible for reviewing the Risk Management Framework, to ensure that it is still sound and identifies all potential risk areas, and submitting annual reports to the Board of Directors and the General Assembly. The Audit Committee also conducts regular reviews of applicable internal control systems in the Company, including all related tasks, policies and procedures to ensure that they are still adequate and sufficient to identify and reduce risks.

The Executive Management is responsible for determining the nature of risk management. Management, at all levels, is responsible for identifying, as appropriate, the risks related to the scope of their work and management. The Company's functional tasks also support the implementation and facilitation of the risk management process.

Risk management activities

In 2024, Jahez hired a third-party consultant to conduct the enterprise risk assessment with the result that the internal Risk Management team continues to work on mitigation plans of the high risk areas. The risk categories cover Governance, Strategic, Financial, Technology and Information Security, Operational, Reputational, Regulatory and Compliance, Human Resources, Project Management and Health, Safety and Security.

Jahez focuses on raising awareness of risk management in all departments of the Company and its subsidiaries and defining roles and responsibilities. Jahez prioritizes risks to keep the focus on the most relevant risks. Risks are assessed on the basis of potential impact and probability analysis, and related actions are implemented to manage or mitigate risks.

Risk factors in the Company

The Group is subjected to various financial risks due to its activities including market risk (including currency risk, fair value and cash flows of interest rate risk),credit risk and liquidity risk.

The Group's overall risk management program focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimize potential adverse effects on the financial performance of the Group.

Market risk

Market risk is the risk that changes in market prices such as foreign exchange rates, profit rates and equity prices will affect the Group's income or the value of its holdings of financial instruments. #### Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the entity will encounter difficulty in raising funds to meet commitments associated with financial instruments. Liquidity risk may result from an inability to sell a financial asset quickly at an amount close to its fair value. Liquidity risk is managed by monitoring on a regular basis that sufficient funds are available to meet any future commitments. The Board of Directors closely and continuously monitors the liquidity risk by performing a regular review of available funds, present and future commitments, operating and capital expenditure. Moreover, the Group monitors the actual cash flows and seeks to match the maturity dates with its financial assets and liabilities.

The Group seeks continuously to comply with its legal obligations, including any obligations relating to its financing agreements.
